2018 Wow Reading Challenge Results :

Schools Registered : 75

Numbers of Students : 13,503

Number of Pages read at the Middle School and High School Level : 1,958,742

Number of Books read at the Elementary School Level : 462,042

Please check the list below to see if your school has won in any of the categories. The Schools that have won the GOLD Medals will be declared The World Literacy Champions. The County Winners Listed at the bottom of the list are winners in their County and their numbers went on to compete against other County Winners in order for us to Crown the overall winners, the overall winners are listed below in Two Categories. The First Nations Category for all the First Nation Schools that have competed in their category and all other schools. If your name appears on this list you will be given a banner for each category you are listed in. I will be ordering the Banners on Monday so please check this list for the spelling of your school name and the category it appears in so that both are correct. If you see anything that needs to be changed please email me at aal@parl.ns.ca.

Thank you for participating in this year's Wow Reading Challenge and thank you for once again making it very successful.
